Time to truth

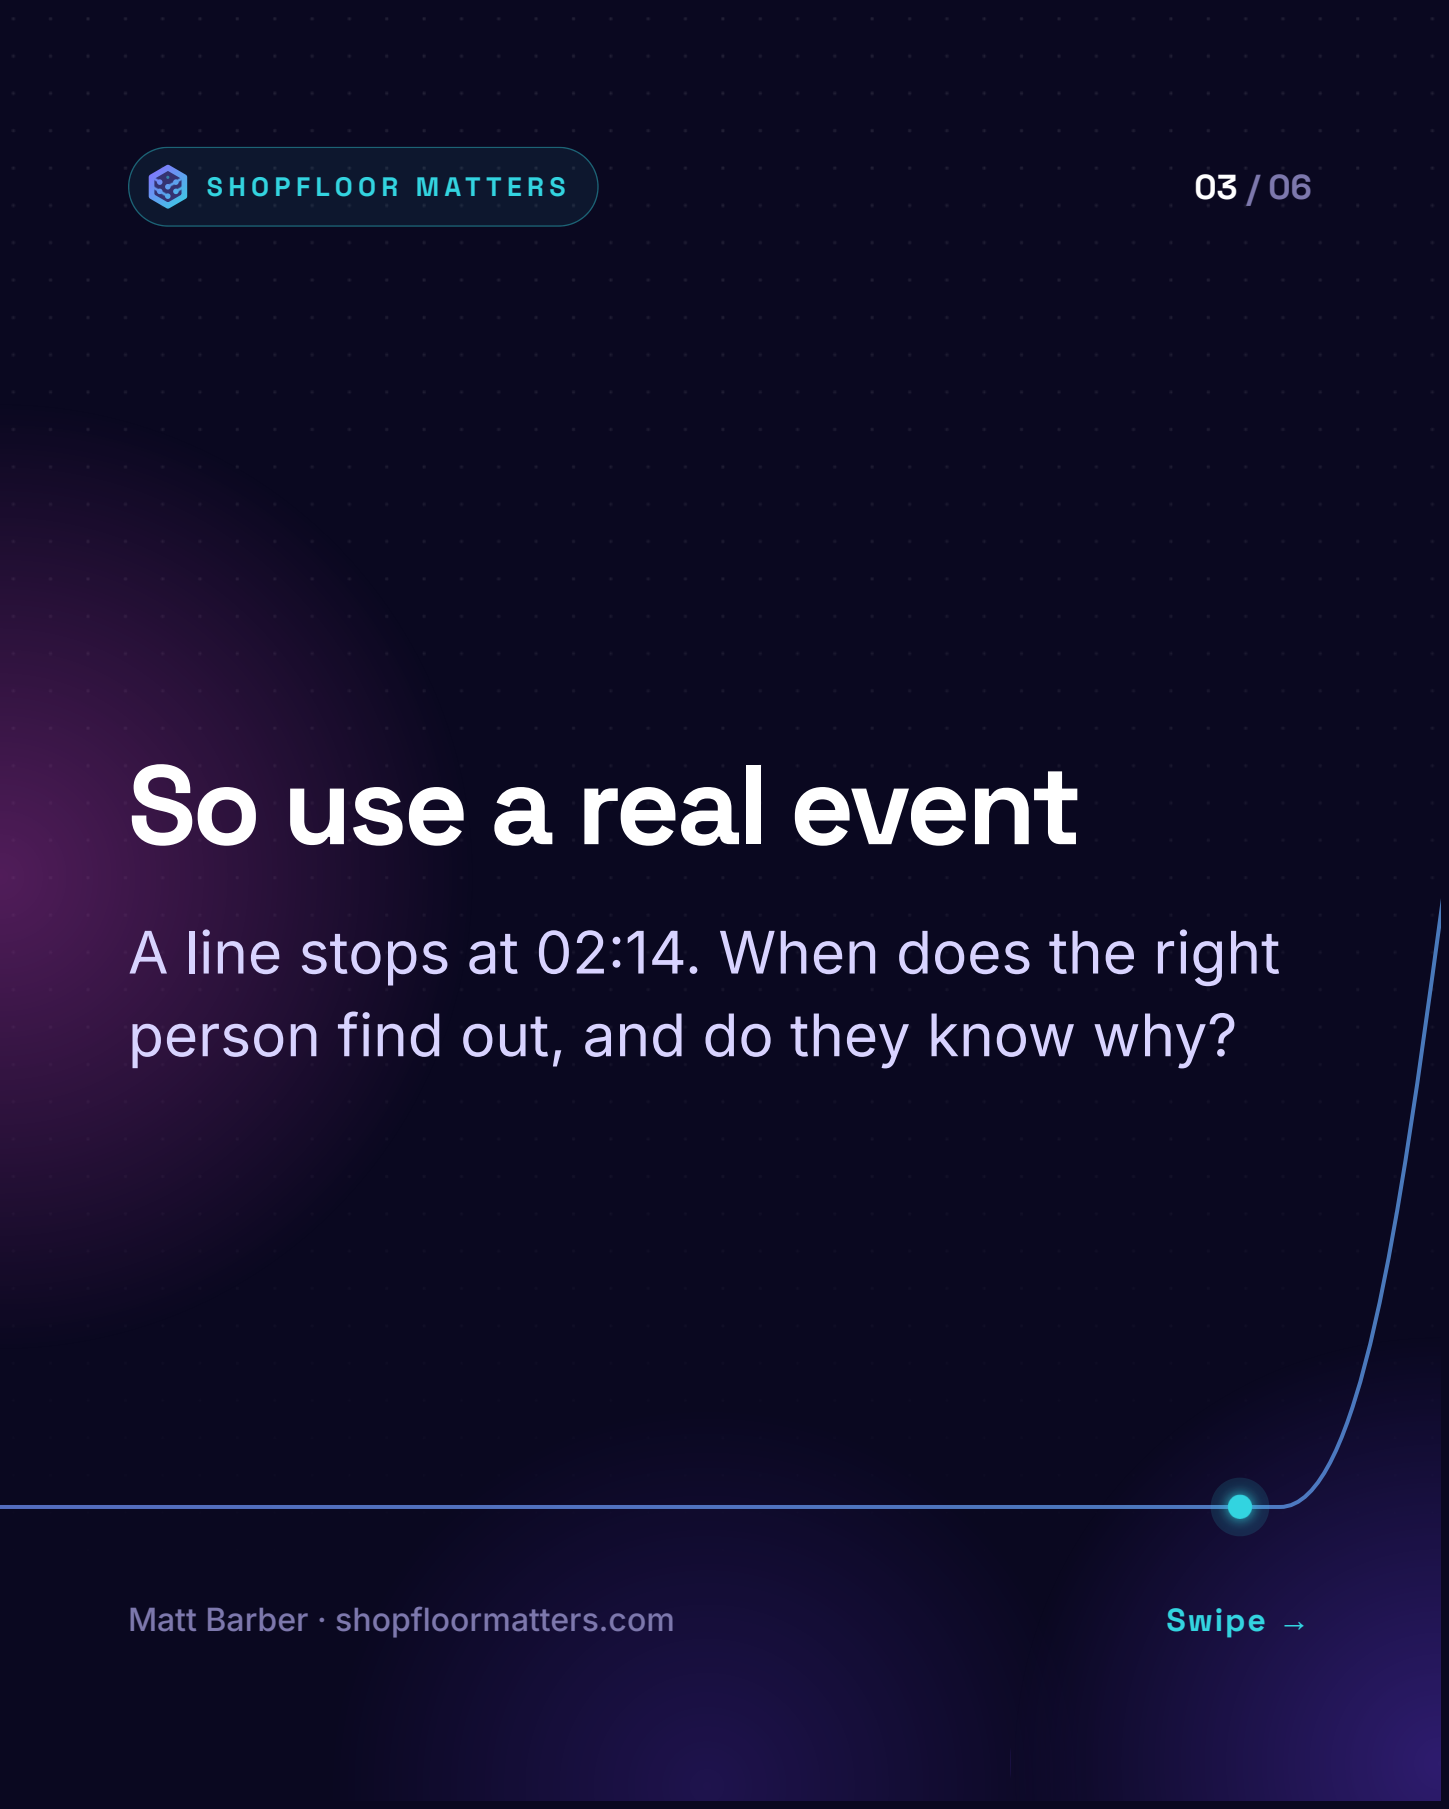

How long does your factory take to know what happened?

Ask a leadership team to rate its maturity and you get the last board presentation.

So use a real event

A line stops at 02:14. When does the right person find out, and do they know why?

Your factory has a shape

Machine stops can arrive right now while quality checks still arrive on paper.

AI adds value at every stage

And it climbs much faster once the truth arrives right now.
